7. Evaluation criteria

Assessment criteria: scientific production and its relevance, participation in scientific projects and congresses, student supervision, scientific dissemination actions, transfer of knowledge, other relevant activities and experiences. The evaluation process may include an interview with the candidates. The candidates' final classification shall be presented on a scale of 0 to 100. The value is calculated by weighing in each factor as follows, always taking into account that for each item only the activity relevant to the scientific field of the present tender will be considered:

1. Scientific and curricular background (PC)

- a) Scientific and technological production: 60%;
- b) Applied or practice-based research activities: 30%;
- c) Extension and dissemination activities: 10%;
- d) Interview (E).

If considered relevant, the candidates ranked in the first three positions will be interviewed (E), in order to clarify aspects related to the results of their investigation. In addition, they will be asked to make a 10-minute presentation (including a PP), in which they demonstrate the contributions to the field of research. Applicants who are interviewed will be assigned a new classification in addition to the initial one that will be based on the following formula:

$$\text{Final classification} = 90\% \text{ PC} + 10\% \text{ E}$$

8. Tender selection panel

Pursuant to article 13 of RJEC, the tender selection panel shall be formed by:

President of the Jury: Prof. Dr. Diana Soares;

Other members: Prof. Dr. Paulo Dias; Prof. Dr. Marisa Carvalho; Prof. Dr. Armanda Gonçalves

9. Deliberation

The panel shall deliberate by means of a roll-call vote under the adopted and disclosed selection criteria, with no abstentions allowed. Minutes of panel meetings shall be drafted and shall include a summary of all occurrences of said meeting, as well as of all votes cast by the members and respective reasoning. After application of the selection criteria, the panel shall prepare a sorted list of approved candidates and respective classification. The panel's final decision shall be approved by the Rector, who shall also approve the hiring of the selected candidate. The ranked list of approved candidates will be posted at the Oporto facilities of Universidade Católica Portuguesa, located at Rua de Diogo Botelho, 1327, 4169-005 Porto,
